WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1892.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, JUNE 12, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

HIS BARGAINS.

He purchased overcoats in June
And straw hats in September;
He didn't think July too soon
To stock up for December;
His winter underclothes he bought
On the approach of spring—
Which all of his acquaintances thought
A very funny thing.

It really did seem rather droll,
When all with heat were dying,
To see him hustle round for coal
Or warm fur mittens buying.
In January he'd not fail
His outfit suit to choose,
Or to attend a bargain sale
Of canvas tennis shoes.

A most forehanded man was he,
He loved a bargain dearly;
A dollar saved filled him with glee,
He sometimes saved one—nearly.
But never did he quite succeed,
Because, you see, he'd keep
On buying things he did not need
Because they seemed so cheap.

LIKELY CAUSE TROUBLE

Town Authorities of Quincy Accused of Delaying the Mails

The town of Quincy, several miles East of this city in Lewis county, seems to have gotten itself in the middle of a bad fix by two of its town officers.

At that place there are two streets over which the C. and O. Railroad crosses and which are traveled very little by vehicles of any sort.

On last Friday Town Marshal William Sparks arrested J. M. Waldron, Conductor of local freight No. 63, and Shannon D. Hall, Conductor of local freight No. 64, charging them with blocking the road crossings with their trains, and took them before Police Judge William Figgett, who put their trial off until today.

In the meantime the arrest of the two Conductors caused their trains to be left standing on the main track, blocking traffic on the railroad and causing several trains to wait, among them being passenger and mail train No. 6, delaying it seventeen minutes.

This will no doubt cause the Federal authorities to take some action in the matter, as the officers of the town were directly responsible for the delay in transmission of the United States mail, which no one is allowed to do, and if the Federal authorities do take hold of the case they will undoubtedly make it interesting for Messrs. Sparks and Figgett.

BADLY INJURED

Police Officer Wallace Hurt By an Unknown "Gentleman"

Yesterday morning about 1 o'clock Policeman John P. Wallace was seriously injured while attempting to arrest an unknown man.

Officers Wallace and Senteney were talking on the Third street end of the Esplanade, when a man approached down Third street, passed North on Market and seated himself at the lower end of the Esplanade.

In a short time the officers heard a noise, and when they looked up they noticed the man looking around in a scared way.

They approached him, when Mr. Wallace asked him what he was doing there at that time of night, a question the officer had a perfect right to ask such a suspicious looking man.

The man informed the officer it was none of his business, whereupon Mr. Wallace told him he had better find a place and go to bed, to which the stranger replied that he would not.

At this the officer started toward him, when as quick as a flash he struck Mr. Wallace full in the face with a rock, knocking him down.

Officer Senteney, seeing his fellow-officer's predicament, rushed to his assistance, when the stranger turned on him, and Mr. Senteney hit him on the arm three times with his mace, with no effect.

Mr. Wallace then recovered himself and arose, drawing his pistol as he was getting up, when Mr. Senteney called to him not to shoot, as they could arrest him at the same time dealing the fellow a terrible blow on the head, which stunned him long enough to allow the officers to get him under their control.

After they had started with him to Jail he again showed fight, but the plucky officers subdued him and locked him up.

Mr. Senteney then called Dr. W. S. Yazell, but the man would not allow the physician to touch him, although he was covered with blood, and would not give his name or tell anything about himself.

Yesterday afternoon he allowed Dr. A. G. Browning to wash his head and examine the wound, but would not allow him to dress it.

It is thought the man is an escaped prisoner from a Virginia Jail, where he was under sentence of death for murder, and for whom a reward of $500 has been offered.

Officer Wallace is in a bad fix. Besides the wound on his forehead, one of his wrists is so badly injured that he cannot raise his arm, and he has a bad bruise on one of his knees.

If Mr. POWERS had three fair and impartial trials, why did the highest Court in Kentucky say on each occasion that he was entitled to another trial?

WHERE is the Goebel Democrat, charged with killing a Republican, who thinks he would get a fair and impartial trial at the hands of a radical Republican Jury?

It looks very much like President ROOSEVELT, by reason of his exalted character and position, will succeed in bringing Russia and Japan together in a conference for peace. Wonder if Marse HENRY will declare this unconstitutional, as he did the President's settlement of the big coal strike?

In the recent arguments in this city in the Caleb Powers Case, the Attorneys for the Commonwealth candidly admitted that Mr. POWERS had not been accorded a fair trial,—a statement emphasized by the Court of Appeals, which has three times set aside the verdicts brought in by the packed Juries.

THE Attorneys for CALEB POWERS, who appeared before Judge COCHRAN in this city, were unanimous in their verdict that, for the first time since they have been connected with the case, they were accorded respectful treatment in Court. Nor can the Attorneys for the prosecution complain that they were not treated as gentlemen should have been, both by citizens, the Court and its officers. That's Maysville's way of doing things.

Did the Court of Appeals of Kentucky ever set aside the verdict of a Lower Court when a trial in the latter had been fairly and honestly and lawfully conducted? Don't all answer at once.

If the Federal Court doesn't take jurisdiction in the Powers Case; if he is to be again tried in a state Court; and if the Kentucky authorities are sincere when they say he should have a fair and impartial trial. THE LEDGER respectfully suggests that the Mason Circuit Court would be a splendid forum. The Judge is a Democrat, the Sheriff is a Democrat, the Clerk is a Democrat, and the county is Democratic; but they are honest, brave, true men, and would scorn any act that would be prejudicial to any defendant.

In his argument for the Commonwealth before Judge COCHRAN in this city, the Hon. CHARLES J. BRONSTON said that CALEB POWERS had not been punished for the crime with which he stands charged. Mr. POWERS has already been in Jail for more than five years, and is today, before the law, an innocent man. To a man up a tree this looks like pretty severe punishment; but Mr. BRONSTON lives in Lexington, and five years in Jail may be considered recreation for a citizen of that place, but down here in Maysville one would much rather be able to go out on the hilltops and view the magnificent scenery.

Political Pickings

COMING DOWN TO CONDITIONS.

Cincinnati Times-Star.

It is fairly easy to write and utter sentimental gush about the beauties of keeping the gates of America open to the poor and oppressed of every land. The time has come, however, when Uncle Sam will soon be forced to disregard gush, look into conditions, not as they were twenty-five years ago, but as they are today, and act for his own protection in this immigration business without delay.

The orange production of California amounts to about $18,000,000 in value and the gold production about $17,000,000.

Dalrymple Upsets Johnsonism

Cincinnati Times-Star.

The men who imported James Dalrymple, the Manager of the Glasgow Traction Lines, as a star for their political agitation, have found that they caught a Tartar. Tom Johnson, in opening his campaign at Cleveland last Saturday, conceived it to be the proper thing to borrow the Scotchman from Chicago. The municipal ownership of street railways was to be the cry of the Johnson campaign in Ohio. Johnson got up and orated about the "cause of the people," and told how his new issue was to sweep the country. He then gave way to Dalrymple.

The Scotchman has not been long in this country, but he has the intuitive instinct of his people of finding out what it is all about, and he promptly declared that if municipal ownership was to be mixed up with politics it was a foredoomed failure. He was a railroad man, and not a politician. He was hired to run a railroad so it would make money, and if he did not make money he expected to be discharged. There was no politics in it—simply business. Apparently this simple-minded Scotchman had never heard how the municipal ownership of street railways was going to revolutionize society, extirpate poverty, make all men six feet tall, and all women beautiful blondes, as its American agitators have professed. All that he knew was what any canny Scotchman knows—to charge as much as he could and to pay out as little as he could.

To those who had pictured municipal ownership as a good thing for the employee he promptly declared: "In order for a municipality to successfully operate a street railway system you must have much better discipline than that exacted of the employees of private companies. I am not going to say that it is for you people to municipalize your street railways. That is a question for you to settle. I believe that it is possible for you to do it, but if you start out to conduct your street railway system on political lines you are doomed. It is imperative that the street railway properties must be managed on the most economical lines or success will never be attained. If you decide to have municipal ownership remember that the system must be put in the most expert of hands, because it is a very dangerous business and mistakes can easily be made."

Then Mr. Dalrymple showed a true Scotch recklessness of consequences by, in the home of "Three Cent Tom" and at his own campaign opening, declaring that a three cent fare was an impossibility under American conditions. "In regard to the rate of fare," he said, "I have been quizzed a great deal since I reached your city this morning. You have five cent fare with transfers. I want to state plainly that if you have transfers you cannot operate under five cents. My experience has taught me that transfers are an abomination. No transfers ought to be issued, and then the proposition of cheapening the fare would be greatly simplified. In Glasgow we have stages so called. You can ride one stage for one cent. Two stages, or about two and one-half miles, for two cents. Our longest ride is from fourteen to fifteen miles and this costs eight cents. To me it seems that five-cent fares with transfers and our system produces about the same result, except for the fact that we carry a great many more people. Here if a man wants to ride 100 yards he has to pay five cents, or about 300¢ too much. If a man wants to ride fifteen miles he still pays five cents, but at an injustice to the railway company. One thing is certain and that is you can never have cheap fare with transfers. Our people would never listen to your system."

The municipalizers are beginning to drop the Glasgow man and are instituting a search for the offender who suggested sending for him. He has irretrievably ruined their cause. The witness by whom they expected to prove their case has irreparably damaged it.

The New York special franchise tax cases were decided by the Supreme Court of the United States adversely to the corporations by which they were brought to the Court.

A German newspaper states that within the last decade the population of Europe has increased about 38,000,000, of whom Russia contributed 14,000,000 and France less than 100,000.

Cuban Diarrhea.
U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish War know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon, as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors, but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by all Druggists.

Do not delay buying the house you want. Cheaper now than 30 days hence. Farms for sale. Now is the time to buy.

JOHN DULEY,

When the Maysville, Carlisle, Millersburg and Paris Traction Road

is built it will bring many people to town to do their shopping who never spend a cent in Maysville now. Our interior neighbors will then reap the benefit of low prices and enjoy privileges they never had before. ## Largest Dock in the World

The Navy Department is busy on the preparations to transfer the great steel floating dry dock now nearing completion at the works of the Maryland Steel Company, near Baltimore, to Cavite, Philippine Islands, where it will be permanently located. The Department has not decided as yet whether it will transfer the great dock at its own risk and expense or do it by contract. It has been decided not to start the dock on its long tow around the Horn and across the Pacific until September 1st. But it will be tested in a short time and the Government will decide whether it is built according to contract and is satisfactory. The dock will be taken down the bay to the mouth of Patuxent river, where it will be prepared for its test. A board of naval officers will be appointed to conduct this test, and the battleship Texas is the ship selected to be docked. This dock is one of the marvels of the world, for it is the greatest dock that was ever built. Not, however, as to size, but the greatest in power and capacity. With flush decks and no water in compartments it will accommodate a vessel of 24,447 tons. This is nearly 10,000 tons larger than any battleship now in the American Navy. With its decks flush and one foot of contained water it will accommodate 22,547 tons, and with two feet free board and one foot of water it will hold a vessel of 18,747 tons. The contract called for the accommodation of only 16,000 tons. When floating light draft it will draw six and one-half feet of water. When submerged it will require 62 feet of water to give a draft of 30 feet above the blocks.

After the dock reaches Solomon's Island at the mouth of the Patuxent, it is intended to dock first a merchant ship and then the battleship Texas. It is expected the tests will consume two months, and be finished in time to prepare to start the monster steel dock on its voyage of 14,000 miles to the Philippines. If the Government decides to tow the dock itself it will be done by vessels of the United States Navy, accompanied by a fleet of colliers. If the towing is done by contract the contractors will have to provide the means. The next largest dock in the world is the naval dock at Algiers, across from New Orleans, which was also built by the Maryland Steel Company. It has a lifting capacity of 17,500 tons. The Bermuda Dock, built in England, has a lifting capacity of 16,500 tons. The Pola Dock, owned by the Austrian Government, has a lifting capacity of 15,000 tons. The Stettin Dock, owned by Germany, has a lifting capacity of only 11,000 tons. The Pensacola Dock, which was formerly at Havana, comes next, with 10,000 tons. The first floating dock ever built was constructed in England, and was towed to Bermuda by two British men-of-war. It was semi-circular in shape and had the appearance of a huge rocker. The new dock for the Philippines is 500 feet long, over 134 feet wide and 42 feet high, from the side walls clear the pontoons, and 64 feet high from the bottom. The thickness of the side walls is 14 feet. The dock contains 9,500 tons of steel, and has two million rivets. It required 130 tons of red lead and linseed oil to paint it. It cost will be about $1,150,000.

WHAT SHE SAW

Maysville Young Lady Impressed By New York Street Scene

Maysville people—women as well as men—are to be found wherever civilization has a foothold—and in some places where it hasn't.

So far as Greater New York is concerned, if Maysville's contributions to its 3,000,000 and many were eliminated, the population would be but 3,000,000 and a few.

Numbered in that vast aggregate, however,
is one bright young lady who keeps her eyes open, and who knows how to tell what she sees.

In a private letter to her home folks she notes this incident—

"I saw something in Broad street, right in front of J. P. Morgan's Building, the other day that struck me very forcibly as demonstrating the religion of the busy business man. There was an automobile with seven preachers and one lady, evidently the wife of one. As we came along they were singing, 'Jesus, Lover of My Soul,' and I never saw such a crowd of people, all orderly. One of the men made a prayer, and I don't think there were ten men in that crowd who had their hats on. You would not have thought it the same crowd that is usually crying their stocks. That was one of the most impressive things I've seen in New York."

TWO MAYSVILLE MEN

How John Blaine and "Billy" Car- penter Have Gone Topward

When the Man from Maysville gets there, he always lands on both feet.

Mr. John E. Blaine, who with his wife was here yesterday visiting boyhood scenes and old friends, is Secretary and Treasurer of the Globe-Wernicke Company of Cincinnati, the largest concern in its line in the world.

Its factory at Norwood employs 1,300 men, and a branch factory in London has some 200 more, while there are over a hundred agencies in as many of the cities of the United States.

In 1881 the writer saw the birth of this business in a single small room in Cincinnati, with a man and a boy as the only employees.

Its originator, Henry C. Yeiser, is now President of the big concern.

In addition to Mr. Blaine, Colonel William R.
Carpenter, another Maysville Man, is a prominent

IMPORTANT RULING

Court of Appeals Affirms a Suit Favor- ing the C. and O.

In affirming a judgment of the Lewis Circuit Court in a case of the Commonwealth against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, the Court of Appeals holds that the fact that a foreign railroad corporation in complying with the provisions of Section 841 of the Kentucky Statutes, files a copy of its articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State of this state, does not subject it to paying annually on two assessments on its franchise.

The action was by the Sheriff of Lewis county to require appellee company, a Virginia corporation, to list its franchise as a Kentucky corporation.

The Court below held for the Company. In affirming, the Appellate Court in part says:

"The theory upon which is based this attempt to tax appellee twice in the same fiscal year upon its franchise, under guise of existence of two corporations and two franchises, is untenable. It is true Section 841 requires each foreign corporation, as a condition precedent to operating in this state, to do certain things, and when these are done, pronounces it a corporation, citizen and resident of the state. But it does not follow that this naturalized corporation is a distinct entity from the old. It is only naturalized so that the state can better control and supervise it."

TIME IS THE TEST.

The Testimony of Maysville People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon find out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Maysville people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly indorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

W. H. Paul, carpenter by trade, living at 333
East Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:
"I value Doan's Kidney Pills as highly today as I did when I first used them in 1899. I got a box of them and used it for pain in my back and other evidences of a disordered condition of the kidneys which had given me much trouble for two years or more. This remedy acted promptly and I was soon cured. I did not notice any of the difficulties until some four years later or about a year ago. I again procured Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore and all symptoms of the trouble were quickly and thoroughly removed. Since then I have not noticed any signs of trouble of any kind arising from my back or kidneys. I most cheerfully re-indorse Doan's Kidney Pills for they are certainly worthy of recommendation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box.
